“ I had been crying a lot today, thinking of my Tom, and then... I see these pictures and I can not stop sobbing and wishing I could be with them.

“ I have known Dee all of my life. I always enjoyed visiting him when he came to Henderson. He was a wonderful father, grandfather, husband, brother, and friend. He will be missed so much by everyone that knew him! Praying for all of his family for the peace that only God can give. I know he is having a wonderful reunion in heaven with his loved ones that went before him.

“ Barnett Family,

I'm Joan and Tommy's age and remember Dee as an "adult" much less rambunctious than those two, but I was a clueless tween. He and Sara were an exciting young married couple to our group, and she was one of the sweetest people I've known. It's sad to lose parents, but I want you to know how fortunate you are to have been given to them.

“ D.W. Barnett was good friend and his death brings great sadness to Carol and me. I first met D.W. when working at The Campbell Soup plant in Paris, Texas. In fact we shared desk space in the same large office for three years. It was friendship almost at first meeting. Since that time we have remained close friends even though distance, at times, kept us apart. Some of the best news that we ever received is that D.W. and family were moving back to Texas and would be living in Arlington, the same city where Carol had made our home. Throughout the years we enjoyed time together with D.W. and Sarah and watched their family grow up. Carol, at Sarah's request, was with her when David was born and he has been a very special part of our family.

What I really know about D.W. Barnett is that he was a good and honest man, he was a good, loyal and loving son and brother. He was a good and loving husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. And, he was a true friend.

Recently Carol and I visited D.W. and a great visit it was. It was obvious that he did not feel his best but he never made any complaints. It was the same D.W. talking about old times, our friendship and making sure that we didn't need anything.

It is only fair to say that I loved D.W. and I will miss him. But his legacy is awesome and I will continue to see both he and Sarah through the lives of his Children. My prayer is that D.W. will rest in peace and that the Peace of God will be with his family and give them strength through this difficult time, “ D.W. was a very kind and funny person to be around. I've known the family for around 45+ years and they treated me as one of their own. David and I will miss him, but we know that he is in a better place and rejoicing with Sara, Tommy and his family who had gone before him.

“ Uncle Dee was the only one in my family who totally agreed with my political views, and of course the only one with common sense. :) He was "the Boss" according to my father, Tom Barnett. He was very wise, kind and loving. I will miss him dearly.

Love,
