

R. Rebecca Watts

January 18, 1925 - May 11, 2012

In the early morning hours of May 11, 2012, R. Rebecca (Burks) Watts was called home by her Heavenly Father and His host of angels at the age of 87. In her early years she worked for SueAnn Manufacture and Fitch where she retired in 1970 so she could spend time with her family. Rebecca loved making clothes for grand kids and great grandchildren. In her spare time she worked on her flower garden in the backyard. She loved cooking for her family, where she rarely measured anything. She wrote down receipes as a pasttime. She was a farmers daughter then became a farmers wife who worked hard. Rebecca was very crafty, she could cross-stitch, needle point, quilt, sew, knit, and crochet. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Laura and Rufus Burks, her brothers Flavel and Cline Burks, and her husband of 48 years, Edwin Earl "Tom" Watts Sr. She left behind her son Edwin Earl Watts Jr., her daughter Mary Jeanette Watts (Collins), grandkids, Linda Jean Watts and Cynthia Ann (Watts) Henelly. Also Carl Howard Collins and Sheila Rebecca Collins. Her great-grandkids, Carl Howard Collins Jr., Lani Aaron Collins and Katie Elizabeth Collins. On May 17, 2012, a private family memorial was held in Rebecca's honor at Strong cemetery. Condolences may be made at www.crawfordacrim.com

Comments

“ I was saddened to hear of Aunt Rebecca's passing. I loved her and have many good memories of being around her and listening to her stories. I am sorry that I did not get around to visiting her in the recent past. She was one of a kind. I know you all will miss her.

Cathy Bane-Ward - May 19, 2012 at 12:00 AM