“ Dear Colma, Baylor just won the national basketball championship so I thought I would look you all up. Well I was shocked to see the obituary for Rueben. I am so sorry to for your great loss. I am sorry Carol and I haven't tried to contact you all sooner. I hope you are doing better now and I read about your children and grandchildren in the obit. I am sure they are a comfort to you especially now. I hope the Funeral Home forwards this to you seeing that it is several months late. “ Mr. Rueben was such a kind soul, and I will NEVER forget him!!! He was so kind and patient while teaching me all he could about everything in the Industry... he crammed as much into my brain as he possibly could. He freely shared his life experiences, product knowledge, customer service tips and SO many life lessons. He shared, he taught, he led by example and I cannot say enough good about Mr. Rueben. This world lost a great person, truly.
Mrs. Colma - sending all of my love to you and the family. Hugs to you.
Mr. Rueben, until we meet again...Thank you for being such a great impact on MY life. You will forever be missed. I thought the WORLD of you.

“ As I sit here with tears rolling down my eyes remembering when Ruben was with Hewitt Robins & my dad,(Eddie Kalinowski Sr, who passed not long ago,) used to give him so much heck, in a good way. Rubin was a good man & was part of our Victoria & Columbus Bearing family & would always tell me," you are just like your Dad". We missed him when he retired, no one seemed to be able to take his place. I am so sorry for his family & love ones. My thoughts & prayers go out to you.

“ My family and I are proud to to know this family, and fellowshiped faithfully with them. Thankful for this man to have served this country for my family and I to live free. My family and I share countless phone calls , text messages and daily scriptural devotionals of our Lord and saviors word. Spent countless hours in prayer for each other both in general prayer and special needs. Know that Reuben is a good man and faithful to God and family. He is going to a place that we here on earth could only dream of where our most expensive best place here on earth is as a filthy rag. For the family we are deeply sorry for you lose, will be praying for you, and know that you brothers and sister out here love you and will help where we can if needed just call

“ So sorry for your loss Kasey. I know you have faith as your father did in a city who's builder and maker is God and that you will see him in that city. Though you and yours are walking through this valley of the shadow of death, we are praying for you, your mom and family and way more importantly HE is with you to be your comforter.

“ Dear Colma, children and grandchildren,
Rueben was such an awesome neighbor, he was so good to lend a helping hand. He rushed over when our pipes in the attic burst from a hard freeze and fixed everyone of them. His cost: ZERO. He worked hard to provide for his awesome children. RIP Rueben.. We will meet again so for now, I will see you later. Gone from here but not forgotten.
Colma, Taryn, Kasey, and Hunter. My prayers continue for all of you. Colma get well. I love you all. Best neighbors ever.

“ Reuben was my cousin but a bit older than me. I remember so much from my early childhood spending time at his folk's (Jake and Betty's) house. Everyone had their chores to do but I could always count on him to take on on a piggy back ride, actual horse back riding on Chief or entering the house with a brown paper sack with boxes of Cracker Jacks inside it for each of us kids. He was so handsome and WAY cool! He had such a twinkle in his eye and his sweet voice and accent are engrained in my heart. I look forward to celebrating in Heaven with him someday. I know the family is going to miss him terribly now that he has gone home. May his memories bring you smiles and the Holy Spirit bring you all peace.

“ Our prayers for comfort and strength go out to Colma and all the family. Rueben was more than just a boss to me. He was a friend, a mentor, and a perfect example of a fine Christian man. His kindness, compassion, and generosity will have a lasting impact on my life and all those around him.
