“ Dear Family. I just now saw that I had missed services for Al. I am so sorry. I enjoyed knowing him. Memories bring smiles to my heart. A favorite is from many years ago at Trinity Baptist business meeting...Al voting 1 way, and Mary Jo the opposite. You are often in my prayers.

“ Thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of loss. Mr. Gilson was such a special man and touched many lives, including mine. He set this mamma's fears to rest when Jake began 1st grade at Chamberlain. I also enjoyed substitute teaching for him. He always had a special light in his eyes and I know they are shining even brighter today now that he is in his heavenly home. Rhonda, Kenneth and Jake Keeling

“ Burt, Joy, Tracey, and Debra,
I am sorry I didn't make it to the visitation. Mr. Gilson was one of the finest men I have ever known. I will miss him greatly when I teach at Brookdale. Even when he no longer knew who I was or often where he was, he knew the truths of God's word and was a vital part of our Sunday School class. He knew God, and he shared His love up until his last days. I know where he is now and that he is whole again.

“ I have many wonderful memories of Mr. Gilson. He was a true gentleman who always greeted everyone with a smile. He was a good listener! He was my first phone call as I headed to the hospital to have my first baby (I had to have a sub for my classroom). He also shared the news of the Twin Towers to our hall of teachers. I could be at the post office or my front yard and Mr. Gilson took time to stop and visit. I'm not sure anyone can fill his shoes. You had a good daddy.

“ Mr Gilson is one of the last from the era of true gentlemen. I grew up with his family at Trinity Baptist Church where his reputation of a Christian family man brightly shined. Later in life, His voice was the first voice I heard for many many mornings. Let me explain. When he was assistant principal at Northside, I was a favorite on his substitute teacher call list. "Good morning Becky" were always his first words. He was a big influence on my decision to go back to college to get my teaching certification .Then, I had the opportunity to teach at Northside for 7 years with him as my assistant principal for most of that time.

I will remember him as a respected man of the military who went on to serve in educating our children. You could easily embarrass him as he had a quiet and shy personality behind that strict military persona.

I want to say, "Good morning Mr Gilson" as you start off this morning wearing your crown full of jewels and reunited with loved ones in a beautiful mansion that God prepared just for you. I am positive that He welcomed you saying, "WELL DONE MY FAITHFUL CHILD".

Al was an outstanding Christian man. We were in the same Sunday school department at First Baptist church for years. He was very faithful. While he was our department director, he would always end with a very appropriate thought. After he moved to Brookdale, he was always eager to visit and didn't complain. He would always say, " God is good to me."
