“ I have such fond memories as a child when our "double-first cousins" families would get together and later as an adult visiting Aunt Alma and Uncle Johnny in Longview where we would sit for hours reminiscing and laughing with them on the patio. Later in life, she and I had a long conversation about how fortunate and blessed she was to have a second chance at love with Uncle Prentis. My Aunt Alma was a genuinely beautiful woman inside and out. She had a gentle, kind demeanor that made everyone who was graced by her presence feel loved and special. Her infectious smile will be forever etched into my soul...I truly loved her dearly.

“ Momma -

You were blessed to have two men who loved you deeply and married you. Daddy for 39 years, and Prentis for 24 years, and both having passed before you.

You loved and doted on Prentis, enjoyed the traveling in the RV to your favorite places, one of which was Branson, Missouri. Both of you enjoyed playing dominoes with Euel and Barbara. You opened your home to family coming to visit, and being members of Providence Baptist. You treated him like a king and he treated you like a queen.

Daddy always said he fell in love with your legs first because of your cheerleading and basketball when you were in high school. Mom you were the strength in our family. You were a devoted wife to daddy and endured his military life and all the moving around from state to state, which was hard in that alone. Momma, you made sure we were raised in a Christian home and got us involved in church wherever we were. As a busy mother of five children, you were kept busy not only feeding us (you certainly knew how to stretch a dollar), keeping us all clothed, sewing for us girls and the boys play clothes, (as if you didn't have enough washing and ironing to do), making sure to keep in touch with our school teachers and activities there, going to t-ball games when the boys were involved with that, the girls in Brownies and Girl Scouts. Then, there was our involvement in church activities outside of our Sunday morning, Sunday night and Wednesday night services, not to mention the two week revivals we had back then, GAs, RA's, and you serving in the church nursery. We had some of the best times and memories at Balboa Park on Sunday afternoons, playing ball and picnicing with friends and their families. It has been amazing to witness your life as a godly woman and the wise advice given to each of us through the years. You have been a great mom to all of us. A true Proverbs 31 woman and your children rise up and call you blessed. I know you are now rejoicing with the Lord, and seeing all the loved ones that have us through the years. I love you so much and will miss you greatly.

*Your loving daughter,
Teresa*
