“ *Kevin & Kristi,
I love "The Stories" and have a favorite one about your special Mom.
Ann loved people and had many friends, who she kept in touch with when they left here. Melba Allen sang in the Chancel Choir 69 years until the mid-1990s, and Ann spent many of those in the loft with her. When Melba moved, Ann kept in contact and relayed updates between their friends. They both enjoyed that, and I still appreciate Ann for keeping my mother-in-law in touch with her longtime church home. They both loved music and church, but Melba's father had been a Methodist Circuit Rider (horse riding preacher) until the 1940s. Something said about her, I think applies to Ann also. "She's there every time the dang church doors are open." Active in church and a wide variety of interest groups, Ann made friends, kept them, and left spaces for more.*
