“ To the Family and Friends of Annie S. Pitner I would like to extend my Heartfelt Sympathy to each of you on the loss of Annie. I was friends with Johnny Sepulvado her brother and we visited Annie and James in Tyler. They both were so nice to me and Annie made me feel so special. She was a Beautiful Lady and I know the family will be lost without her. Please look to the Heavens for your Peace as only the Good Lord can give you the Peace you each deserve. May Annie Rest In Peace until We all meet Her Again. God Bless All !!!!

“ Dearest Mr. Pitner & Family, I was both shocked and saddened to hear of your loss. Ms. Annie was such a sweet soul. I will always remember our chats up at store 605 & remember her with a smile. My heart aches for each of you at this time. My prayer is that the Lord's divine peace is bestowed upon you as you go through this time of difficulty. Because He lives, Regina Helms
