Barbara Kay Wright, aged 79, passed away at her home in Shreveport, Louisiana on August 15. Barbara, known affectionately as Bobbe, was born in Amarillo, Texas on September 17, 1938. A proud Texan by heart, she resided in Louisiana for 49 years. She was an avid reader who loved gardening, Pomeranians and games. I remember taking this photo , it was the day I was blessed with meeting Bob and Bobbe for the very first time .. we spent the day sharing wonderful stories of sisters growing up in West Texas, lots of laughter that day.. Shared lunch together, and I left with a warm heart knowing this is a very special family, Rest in Peace Ms. Bobbe , you brought much joy and grace into the lives of so many, you will be greatly missed and never forgotten !!!!
