“ Barbara was a truly beautiful, talented, and gracious lady, and we felt very fortunate to know her while living in Henderson. We spent many happy and entertaining hours with her and Wally and felt that they were such a wonderfully matched couple, who had so much to give to their community and their friends!

Over the years and geographic distance, we lost contact with them, but we never forgot them and all the kindness they showed us. Now they are reunited in the glory of God- two stars shining from the heavens. May they rest in peace.

“ First met Mrs Read when I walked into her Kilgore College English classroom. My first impression was that she was beautiful and so well spoken. She was a great teacher and a great friend to my mother in law, Mary Massengale. She and Wally used to go out to eat with Mary and Van often. I know her mind is back to being brilliant. Prayers for the family during the tough days ahead.

“ There are so many sweet memories of Barbara and Wally. I used to tease Barbara often because the only time I ever got in trouble in school was at KC in her summer English class. I was talking to my Chi O sister and I heard “ Su Layne?”. I turned around with a red face and laughed. That’s what happens when your cousin just happens to know it’s genetic and she knows your name 😊. I know she is laughing with my mom and her brother over all the trouble they got into in the Harris farm. I’m sure there is a lot of piano playing, guitar picking, sax playing, fiddling, and singing with the Harris crew. I’m sure Wally chiming in on trumpet! Keeping all the happy memories! ❤️ To all!
