“ Martha...how I love your mom! When she lived in Henderson and I worked at First Baptist Church she and I often talked about you and I and high school days. Later on when you and I had our own families she would see me in the dollar store or some other store and we'd still chat about the good old days. I truly thought a lot of her. I'm sorry for your loss but am confident of where she is today! God bless you and I will keep you in my prayers.
