Belton was a childhood friend. I rode a horse to see him in our younger days. We hunted, fished, worked and camped out together. We rode his 54 ,(and later his 58 Chevrolet), on double dates. He was one of my best friends and was a better man than I. I will miss him greatly.

“ Belton was a good man who more than once took care of me during some difficult times in my youth. He was not judgemental or harsh. He let you know you made a poor decision, but with grace led you to do better. His calmness is what I noticed during these times. Lord knows Kenneth and I challenged him on that. God bless you Sir. I have been blessed to know you.

I have never heard a negative word spoken of Belton, And was blessed to have he and Nan as lifelong friends. God speed my friend as you and Nan are together again💕🙏
