“ Ola Mae and family, so many memories to cherish. Camping was so fun when I was little. I remember spending the night so many times and playing with MaryBeth, Pietro's Pizza, peanuts in Bert's soda, laughing, and the love you shared with my family. I will miss Bert and all of you. My prayers and thoughts are with you during this hard time. Love, Elesha.

“ Ola Mae, Brenda/Jeff, Randi, Mary Beth/Todd, Brandon, Lucy, Janice, Dad and Mom (Gerald/Edith), CR/Elaine, Larry Don/Becky, and all the other precious family members and friends... Uncle Bert was very special to us! As a child, and even as an adult, it just seemed that my Uncle Bert would just ALWAYS be here with us. It's hard to imagine him being gone. We loved him very much and know how much he was loved by his family and I thought it was so cool that he and dad had such a close bond and called each other or Aunt Ola Mae and Mom every week for years and years. That has always impressed me and that Love will always be there. Remembering Mike and Pat, Grandma and Grandpa Spradlin today too and wishing we could be there at the service with all of you! Love, hugs and prayers! Myron and Cindy Brown
