“Mama, I have not written you here in months but I have talked to you everyday. I used to watch your video everyday. The first time I went to watch it and it was gone I went crazy. I called Rhonda and asked her for the copy they gave us. I have not watched it again yet, but I will. I am just not that strong yet. I just needed Scott to send you a message from me tonight. He told me I could write you anytime I wanted to and he would send it right up. I have been doing ok because I find the pennies from heaven that you send all the time. But I just started back crying every day and needed to talk to you. Your lamp I have in the breakfast room blinked the other night when I was down and I know it was a message from you. I am so happy most of the time because you are with daddy where you want to be but I miss you so much. My weekends are so empty because I want to be going to spend them with you. I am so glad I never felt like I was sacrificing my weekends when I came to see you because neither one of us knew how much that time meant to me until now. I will love you with all my heart until the day I die, Bettie Ann

“Mama, This is the first time in 50 years that I could not say Happy Fathers day to you in person. You were always mother and father to me since daddy died. I always looked forward to celebrating Fathers Day as much as Mothers Day with you. I have missed you so much since you left. So many people have told me what a wonderful daughter I was but they just didn't know what a wonderful and special mother you were. I have such wonderful memories of when we were together. We were always talking and laughing about something. I miss that so much. I wish I was with you and daddy so I could be sharing life with you'll without any pain. Everyone says that it will "get better with time" but I don't believe that. I'll never stop missing you and wishing I could be with you. I know you aren't hurting now and for that I am grateful. I just want to be with you and be happy. I feel like my heart will never be whole again until I join you and daddy in heaven. I will love you with all my heart until the day I die. Happy Father's Day. I miss you.

“Bettie Ann, Thank you for the beautiful button covers. I will wear them with pride and think of you and the love you have for your Mother. My heart went out to you this morning. Losing your Mother must be the hardest thing that a daughter could ever go through. I could tell how much you miss her. I hope you keep busy and manage to find happinesses in everyday things. There are no words to adequately express our sympathy for the devastation and profound loss you're feeling. If there is anything I can do, give me a call anytime. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Mama, I can't sleep tonight so I thought I would write you. I am re-living the last day we had together and I can't stop thinking there was something else I could have done, Shoud I have questioned the amount of pills they gave you at 5:30 or the fact that they put you on the B-Pap machine? I know you didn't feel good and that you were fussy and apologizing for that. That is the reason I crawled in bed with you so I could feel you when you moved or anything. I am so sorry If I did not do something right. I miss you and need you. I'll love you 'till the day I see you and daddy in Heaven, Bettie Ann

“ Mama, It hasbeen a week since you left me and my heart is still breaking. I am trying to do what I know you would want me to do but I just can't. I miss you more today than ever. I just want to hear your voice and see your beautiful smile. I feel so empty and lonesome for you. Roy has been wonderful and has tried everything to help me. I just feel like the joy in my life is gone. I want you back here with me so I can take care of you. You weren't suppose to leave me like this. I love you with all my heart, Bettie Ann

“ Dear Stanfield family, I'm so sorry about the loss of of your mother/grandmother/mother-in-law/ and friend. She really was a nice lady that I've known for many years and she still knew and remembered my name the last time I talked with her. Just know that the coming days are going to be hard but they will soften over time. It's always so hard to lose a parent but know she had many loved ones who have gone on before her to greet her at Heaven's Gate. Don't you know it was a joyous reunion? My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time in your lives. Suzanne Reed and Jim Reed

“ Your mother/mother-in-law was a wonderful person. I always remember her smile and her kindness. I saw your mother at the Post Office in Henderson several months ago. I said hello and asked her did she remember me and she said she did and she showed her sweet smile. I know you are grieving now over the loss of your mother/mother-in-law. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of mourning.

“ Mama, Scott said when I got very lonesome for you to just write you and he would send it right up! Everyone said you had such a sweet service today. I miss you so much already. I know you are happy with daddy again after nearly 50 years. I don't know how I am going to live without you but will just take it one day at a time. You were truly my best friend and the best mother anyone could have. You were so loved and always will be. My heart has a big hole in it and I don't know what to do about it. I love you,

“ I just wanted to say what wonderful memories I have of Bettie Jo and those countless times I encountered the kindness and encouragement that she offered others through her grace. I've worked in private-duty nursing here many years and with many people. The thing I admire most were here notes and cards of encouragement and love to those that I worked and cared for. I can say that such a sweet spirit is in heaven today among those others that have led the way. Thank You to a Beautiful lady who did beautiful things. God bless you Stephen and family. Rose
