Mrs. Betty Jo Lee (Granny), I'm gonna miss you and all of our talks we have had. We have had talks about life, family, and God. With everything you and I talked about, I can say that you have taught me to just be the better person and put it in Gods hands, and that he will take care of the rest if I did. So that's what I am going to do. I'm going to miss your smile, your encouraging words for the day, and most of all, I will miss just having you around. You gave me strength when I was down and I will always remember you for that. Well, Mrs. Betty Jo, you have your Golden Wings on now, flying over us and rejoicing high in the sky. I want you to know, you are gone but you will never be forgotten.

*I Love You Betty Jo Lee,
Rhonda Lowe*

“ I have not seen Betty in years except at a funeral or community event. Before I taught school we used to visit and make treats and favors as homeroom mothers. Mayhavel worked on floats together. My mind isn't what it used to be. I do know she was a kind person, fun to be around and I admired how she looked out for her family. Hard for me to believe how many grand and great -grands and if I read right even great-great-grands. What a Blessing.
