“ I remember when I was just a little girl living on 1909 Inglewood in Henderson I would go next door and ask her to buy candy that I was selling in school....she always would buy from me and would always have a pretty smile....i also remember that i would gather up her newspapers for her and put them either at the front door so she wouldnt have to walk much.....She reminded me of a grandmother and I always admired her nice talks and respected her so much...its sad that she is gone I was just asking my mom about her not to long ago how she was.... she was a very nice christian who would do anything for anyone and always spoke highly of others....it breaks my heart to here this but I know she is in a better place....rest in piece Mrs. Little I live you Angela Propes
