“ I didn't get the chance to know Betty for very long, but she made a wonderful impression! So very full of life! My prayers are with the families, and still hoping to see John at future reunions! Take one day at a time, and may God Bless each of you!

“ John and family, many of you know where my heart is in all of this. How wonderful for this Allison to find all of you through the wonder of the internet as Betty and I chased the Allison across history. Then sharing Allison history with Betty and finding new discoveries and coming to the reunions. My life has been enriched by the experience and my heart changed for the better and forever. A good thing. Gil
