“ I am sad to lose such a sweet neighbor. She personafied what a strong independent woman should be. I will forever strive to be the kind of LADY she represented herself to be. There are few true Texas Ladies left.

“ Words will never be enough to describe the joy Bet brought to my life. We had so many happy times and reflected on so many fond memories. We came to realize that we shared many "Harris" traits. I am at a total loss as to who I will call to assist me in moving a tree or having that extra gas can because I just couldn't manage to remember to fill my car up. She will definately be missed and loved.
