“ I met Billie when I started working at The Chalice Apts. She came by regularly to visit her sister, Bettye Johnson. Such a sweet & loving person. After Ms Bettye passed, Billie came by from time to time to visit. She will be remembered and missed by all here.

“ I recently met Billie while she was shopping for a buick, although she did not end up buying from me, she and I hit it off immediately....Billie had spunk, I liked that about her, we had some animated conversations, through those conversations she always expressed her love for Jack, and how she missed him. I am sorry for your loss, I just spoke to her at walmart a week ago....like my friend James Buckner who passed away, I am glad that I got to meet her as well.

“ Billie was a sweet Lady that I got to know when I worked at Kroger and I remember Jack and their Dog would wait outside in the Truck....Then when Jack was Gone she would still drive the Truck so Her Dog could come to town too and he was a really sweet dog! Unless you messed with his owner! I cannot believe she is gone...I just saw her a couple of weeks ago in Wal-mart picking out a watermelon....she always had a good joke and I always seemed to pass her on my way to town or going home and it amazed me how she was still able to drive ! She will be missed and I will always be saddened every time I pass her house knowing she has gone on to meet her maker.

“ Mrs. Flanagan was a great spirit who kept everyone one smiling and laughing. she love a good joke, and she had a great sense of humor. i used to check on her as i was going home. my husband would leave for work early in the morning and always checked to see if her kitchen light was on. if we saw her in the window you knew all was okay. she love her family and always spoke of her husband Jack and the life they shared before his passing. Our prayers are with you may God show love ,peace, and grace upon your heavy heart."her chains are gone, she's been set free, her god, her saviour has ransomed she, like a flood his mercy reighn, unending love, Amaizning grace.". he has laid the temple of an angel down today.
