“ Kenny & Family, Billie Jo was one of my favorite teachers--4th grade, Central, "Mrs. Morris" then. But it didn't stop there. Every time we met, she'd say, "I remember how much fun we had together." I was still special to her all these years, and she was always a special lady. Gay (Poovey) Allen

“ To The Family of Billie Jo Morris: We would like to extend our deepest sympathy for the loss of Billie Jo. She was truly a lovely lady & a very good friend. (The happy memories of attending school with Billie Jo at Stephen F. Austin State University & the fun days of traveling to & from college are treasures to reflect upon & remember.) Billie Jo made a wonderful impact on so many including the lives of the children that she taught & the professionals that had the pleasure of knowing her. May God bless, comfort & give a peace that surpasses all understanding during this time of sorrow. Sincerely, Ben & Geneva Craycraft
