A beautiful reminiscent journey of loving faith for all he loved. That face is always the same expression!! He's not taking any wooden nickels! He has done what God has instilled and stood like Goliath. He will truly be missed and remembered with such love and smiles.

“ Uncle Billy,
You were so loved by all your nieces and nephews.
There is so many memories I will forever cherish.
I can hear that chuckle under your breath when you got tickled.
I will see you and our families again someday,
I know they were all waiting to greet you at those golden gates.
Praying for your family, as they have to learn a new normal without you in it :(
