

Billy Truman " Bill" McLeroy

October 14, 1947 - September 10, 2021

Billy Truman McLeroy "Bill" was born in Henderson, Texas to Truman and Ann McLeroy on October 14, 1947 and passed away on September 10, 2021 at his residence.

Bill grew up in Henderson and was a 1966 graduate of Henderson High School. After graduation he continued his education at Stephen F Austin University and received a Bachelor's of Arts in History and a minor in education. Shortly after graduation he began working at Crawford Clothiers in Henderson where he met many lifelong friends. Bill moved to Shreveport and began a career in education where he was a headmaster at a private school. This was not his calling he soon found out. He returned to the clothing industry and was a buyer for Palais Royal and traveled throughout the United States. Bill finished his career working for the State of Louisiana as a caseworker and retired after 20 years and returned to his roots, Henderson. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Henderson in the 70's, and one as well in Shreveport.

Bill lived a full life. His quick wit and endless supply of stories could brighten your day. He was an avid reader and read almost every best seller. He made weekly visits to the Rusk County Library and recommended books to his friends and family. He had a love for all animals - cats, dogs, and even the hummingbirds. He was a big supporter of the Henderson Animal Shelter.

Bill was preceded in death by his father, Truman McLeroy.

He is survived by his mother, Anne McLeroy; brother, Bobby McLeroy; sisters, Jan Crow (spouse David), and Nina Hodge; nephew, Cortney Crow and his son Cason; niece, Coli Huffty (spouse Kirk) and their boys Ethan, Lincoln, and Behr; and a very special lifelong friend, Joyce Hales.

In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials be made to the Rusk County Library at 106 East Main Street, Henderson, TX, and/or Henderson Animal Shelter at 1201 Highland Drive, Henderson, Tx.

A memorial service for Bill will be held at a later date.

“ Bill was a classmate of my older brother, Randall. He came by our house almost daily. The Henderson Senior Class of 1966 was fun-loving, mischievous, magical, and created solid friendships. Many of us who were siblings to one of the class members, reaped the rewards and joy from knowing such a spectacular group of individuals. A rare gift to share time with any one of them was a privilege and an honor. Bill was one of these individuals and will be missed by all who knew him. The following is my tribute to his memory. I hope you feel his essence.

There are those among us who make a difference in our lives. Those whose presence is so pervasive as to be taken for granted. We see them from day to day. We listen to their words. We laugh and cry with them. It does not occur to us that we can do without them. We cannot imagine the world without them.

Bill's character was real and recognizable. His integrity was strong and steady. His love of laughter was created by his keen ironic sense of humor. It touched us with a spirit that was uniquely his, and his alone. That spirit, his spirit, remains with us. It is his immortality.

Since all my words have been about Bill, I feel it is only fitting I say these words to him. Bill, may you know that legions of heavenly angels accompany you now. I ask that they watch over you well because you deserve such a guard. Your friends and family love you, Bill. We thank you for everything you did or did not do out of your love for us. Therefore, until we meet again—all of those of us who knew you could also say, thank you for ALL THE FUN-FILLED MEMORIES and MANY FABULOUS QUOTES!

*My candle burns at both ends;
It will not last the night:
But ah, my foes, and oh, my friends—
It gives such a lovely light!
Edna St. Vincent Millay's poem Figs from Thistles-
First Fig.*

*Please remember, I am with you, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am a thousand glints on snow.
I am the sunshine on your shoulders.
I am the gentle rain for all seasons.
I am the soft stars that shine all night.
Know, in one of the stars I shall be living.
In one of them, I shall be laughing.
Therefore, it will be as if all the stars are laughing...
When you look at the sky at night...
You-ONLY YOU-will have stars that laugh...
The Little Prince lines by Antonio de Saint-Exupery*

In closing, if Bill had any words of wisdom for us all, it might well be "Do what you love to do, stay active, stay engaged in life, vibrant, and spiritually enlightened".

Until the time comes-as his has-smile and remember him by his favorite Willie Nelson song lyric:

"Turn out the lights, the party's over".

“ Kenny and I are saddened to hear of the passing of a good man and great classmate. Billy was the go to man to find out how our home town of "HENDERSON" was doing. His wit, charm and enthusiasm for "information" was vast and he could keep you entertained with his stories for hours. Class of 1966 has lost another outstanding alumni. God's speed to those that called him family and friend.

“ Family,
Going to the grocery store is a chore for me, but the days Billy was there to entertain me with a good chatter, I left in a better mood. The obituary was an excellent description of him, and with his varied experiences, I learned the reason for his wide range of topics in the aisles. Not that we needed one. I am one of the many who will miss him.
