“ My brother in law always hugged you like it would be the last time. I always joke he cracked a rib or two. His absolute favorite place to be was surrounded by family and friends telling stories and jokes during a barbecue or bonfire. He was always ready to go for an adventure whether it was jet skiing, fishing, or riding through the mud on anything with wheels. When I saw him dance with his mother at his niece's wedding, their smiles were absolutely priceless. But nothing made his eyes sparkle like when he talked about his daughter, Emily. She is what he was most proud of in his whole life and he loved her with everything he had. 46 years was much too short but Bobby always did everything his own way and was always unapologetically himself. We love and miss him everyday.
