“ I think the angels probably sang an especially sweet song when they welcomed Bob home. He was one of the sweetest, kindest people I have ever known. He loved God, his family and his country. I will miss sitting on his porch listening to him talk about the good ole days and telling me funny stories and jokes to make me laugh. Over the years I grew to love him like a grandpa. I feel very blessed to have called him my friend and will miss him terribly. My prayers for all of his family.

“ I had the privilege of being Mr. Ferguson's CNA at HHRC and I loved hearing his stories of how much he lived of all of his family. He told me how Christy was his little buddy, and Mrs. Sandy was his jewel, his son Billy he wanted you to know he was so proud of you. He was so excited about Natalie getting married. He was an angel and it's people like him that make my job amazing

“ Baker Street neighbors and friends for so many years. Lots of good memories. The Fergerson's house was kinda in the middle of the neighborhood, so their yard was a good gathering place for all the kids. I can still see Bobby pulling into the driveway after work getting out with his lunchbox in hand, Patsy hollering from the porch for the kids to come inside for supper, always nice and welcoming, Mr Bobby was very artistic and he passed those talents on to Sandy and Billy. Many of our Baker Street neighbors have passed, but they will never be forgotten.

“ I had the pleasure and honor of working with Bob for about 7yrs at Eastman, then he retired! An Amazing talented man could lay out ANY form you needed like square to rounds that were used mostly in the pilot plants. Bob taught me how to make them, quite a task, I'm sure! Also, how to do so many other 'tricks' of the trade. Bless you, my Friend. You made an impact on many lives.
