“ I'll always remember Bobby's love for his family .. especially his grandchildren.. of his love of fishing, family get togethers, when all his brothers, sisters, nieces & nephews got together for a fish fry. I'll remember his catty but funny remarks and how he could make us laugh. I'll remember his oh so tight bear hugs when you wondered if you'd ever take in another breath. Most of all, I'll always remember his love for our Lord and Savior.
We'll miss you, Bobby, but we know you're well and you're happy and you're resting now in God's loving arms.

“ So sorry for your loss. I remember Bobby from when I was little, coming to the house telling us that Squirrely, his dog, wrecked his car. He'd put his little paws on the steering wheel and let go believing Squirrely could drive. We all laughed & couldn't wait to hear the next story he had to tell! He will be missed.

“ Dearest Hays Family, thinking about all of you during this difficult time. Bobby was a very special cousin, we loved him so very much! Bobby deeply loved his family. We had just talked recently about the good times we had shared with Bobby and all of you. Many great memories! We may live miles apart but, you are in our thoughts and prayers all the time. I am sure Daddy, Mark, and all the other Shepherd's and Hay's were there waiting for him at the gates of Heaven, extending a welcoming hand and hugs. Bobby will live on thru the great memories we all have of him.
God bless you all. We Love You, John and Shirley (Shepherd) Bohannon and Family
