“ Dear Kathy,

I am deeply saddened with the passing of Brenda! I have the fondest memories of Brenda, you and me, sitting on Mama Gibson's porch in the evenings, acting silly, as we always did when we were young. Brenda had a great sense of humor! I know she is in Heaven now and finally has the peace she so deserved! Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers!

*All my love,
Elaine*

“ Dearest Kathy

As you know Brenda was one of my favorite 1st cousins. We have the memories of a kinder gentler time as we all grew up together. The times we all played together when we visited Mama Gibson and PaPa's house for Thanksgiving and Christmas. As I reflect back on those days I realize now that it was "quality" time we spent together without any of the modern day distractions. The last time I visited Brenda in the nursing home I told her that I loved her and she responded with the same. I am so glad now that I was able to utter those words to her. All that knew her will want to keep a special place in their heart for her as I will.

*Your 1st Cousin
