“ Carla was my older and only sister. She took care of me when I was young and although life's circumstances sometimes lead us in different ways, I never stopped loving her and often thought what life "could have been". To her family, I am sorry for your pain. Please tell JR that I love him.

“ Momma Carla was one of the most incredible women I have ever met. She had such a loving heart, genuine personality, and beautiful soul. She took on peoples problems like they were her own and showed us all the love she and Jesus had to offer. When I was broken she and her amazing family helped me piece myself back together again. All the times I needed a mom there she was.. Many years I have went to her for safety, advice, shelter, love, honesty, and family. I feel overwhelming blessed to have been loved by her. I am completely heartbroken with her absence, yet I am rejoicing in her joining Jesus. Love you momma Carla

“ She was the best mother in law I could have ever hoped for. From the very first day we met she welcomed me with open arms loved me ever since. She loved to tell me all about the shows she was watching and show me her new makeup every time she had gotten some. She was always so generous and caring and made sure you were taken care of. It is a blessing to have been loved by her. I know she is dancing with Jesus.
