

Carlton Stephens

December 7, 1934 - September 20, 2011

Funeral services for Carlton Stephens, 76, of Henderson, will be at 11:00 am, Thursday, Sept. 22, 2011 at First Baptist Church of Henderson with Rev. Bill Tisdale, Rev. Robert Hall, and Rev. Don Edmiston officiating. Visitation will follow the service in the parlor of First Baptist Church. Mr. Stephens passed away Tuesday, Sept. 20, 2011 at his residence. He was born Dec. 7, 1934 in Gilmer, TX. Carlton graduated from Henderson High School and attended Stephen F. Austin University. He worked as a rancher in Rusk County. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Henderson. Carlton knew the blessing of having a son that shared his passion for horses and the ranch life. He shared many memories with his son, Todd, which he cherished. He was also blessed with a daughter-in-law he loved as his own daughter. Dee could always get the best out of him. Grandkids were his specialty, teaching them all about the cowboy way and how to live life to the fullest. From the time his first grandchild, Caleb, was barely able to sit up he placed him on his horses, Freckles and Smokey. Carlton couldn't wait to get a rope in little Caleb's hand. And when baby girl, Jordan, came along Carlton had her by his side as much as possible, whether it was riding the gator or feeding horses at the farm. She loved being with her Papa. Carlton also had a heart for cowboys and their need for Jesus. He loved that there was now a church where they could go and feel right at home. He spent many years in the roping pen, loving his horses and most of all his roping buddies. He loved to laugh and joke, which made us love him even more for his sense of humor. He will be missed by many but we are so thankful we were able to share this season of life with him. He was preceded in death by his parents, Curtis and Lucille Stephens; sister, Anita Anderson; and brother, Charles Stephens. Survivors include: his wife of 54 years, Gay Stephens; son, Todd Stephens and wife Dee of Henderson; and grandchildren Caleb and Jordan Stephens; a sister-in-law Carolyn Stephens and numerous nieces and nephews. Pallbearers are Curt Stephens, Steve Anderson, Grant Anderson, Rocky Gill, Gary Crawford, Scott Crawford, Carey Copeland, and Travis Rayburn. Condolences may be made online at www.crawfordacrim.com.
