“ We were so sorry to hear of Carrie's passing but I know she is in a wonderful place now. I have thought of her many times while I am working on the Family Tree. She was special person and my mother, Hazel Bogard Brock, loved her very much.

“ Just learned of Carrie's passing today. SO MUCH history goes with her. She was always so helpful and interested in talking about Trammel's Trace. My dad always showed how much he cared for her and took me by with him often....a habit I learned to enjoy on my own. My thoughts are with all my Threadgill and Patrick cousins.

“ I was a teacher at Central School from 1978-1999. I loved visiting with Mrs. Patrick . She made the best "Butter Roll" in the world. I am still wearing some of it! She always made me laugh and gave me many cooking lessons. Thank you Mrs. Patrick for great memories at Central.

“ Hi Aunt Carrie - This is Connie, Wallace's daughter, writing for Daddy and Charles - you are in heaven now and at peace with Uncle Sam, Aunt Mary, Thelma (Mama) and looking down on all of us. You know our very young history together and even though you weren't out real aunt, you could not have been more loving and real to us. Down in South Louisiana, I couldn't get flowers in time for your service so we will make a donation to the cemetery. Be at rest now, you earned it! Janie - Charles and I remember you very lovingly and the time he "pee'd" right down your leg! How is that for being treated like real family! Daddy sends his love . . . God Bless You!!!

“ I will never forget how everyone in the Threadgill family loved and respected Aunt Carrie. I remember how the entire family came together to build her house when I was just a child, and all the love, laughter, and fellowship that was shared during those days. She will be sorely missed by those she left behind, but there is no one more assured of life hereafter than our lovely Aunt Carrie. Godspeed.

“ Aunt Carrie was so beautiful & so much fun. I loved hearing her stories, especially the one about my dad Pee Wee, who was about 7 yrs old when Aunt Carrie married Sam. Dad cried because he didn't understand why he could not be with them on their honeymoon. He loved his "Old Sister." As sad as we are that Aunt Carrie is gone from us, I know my daddy is grinning like a possum to see his beloved "Old Sister" again. We love you all.
