“ Only a few men have the kindness Cecil exhibited to all he met, but to me he was a giant among men. If you were blessed enough to be a friend of his, he would turn hand springs to help you as he did for me. It didn't matter if my car battery was dead or my law mower wouldn't start he was there immediate to take care of the situation. He was always so calm about everything he endeavored to do. He loved his dear, Catherine with all his heart & was fierce in taking care of her until she went to heaven. Now they are once again united in their heavenly home, never to be parted again. I will miss you but by grace I know I will see you both again.
