“ Lisse and family,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in this time of sorrow. While there is always suffering in the loss of a loved one, especially a parent, its comforting to know when your loved one has committed their life to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It reassures you he is in the presence of our heavenly Father.

I always find comfort from Gods infallible word and pray you will to in this time of sorrow.

A couple scriptures I find comforting are:

John 14:2

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Thomas said unto him, Lord, we don't know the way, Jesus said, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Revelations 21:4

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for all the former things are passed away.

“ The first job I had as a teenager was working with Uncle Chuck as a helper on his lawn care business which he did after his meat cutting job day ended and on weekends. He taught me what work was all about. Tell my Mom and Dad for me when you go through the Pearly Gates. RIP- Uncle Chuck
