I loved Charlie like he was my family. I have known him since 1963 when we moved to Longview. He and Ruth were the best neighbors anyone could ask for. We enjoyed many holiday dinners together both at my mom's house and at mine. He had a contagious laugh that I loved. Sending love and prayers to his family. He will be missed. R.I.P.

I barely remember Charles as he was only 3 years older than me. His grandparents lived across the pasture where I grew up. His grandmother was my daddy's sister.
