“Charlene, I was saddened to read of your dad's death in the newspaper. I can remember him coming into Wright Dyer when I worked there in high school and having coffee. All of our Central, Jr. High and High School days came rushing back. Wishing I could be there with you today! My thoughts will be with you and Cindy. After reading his obit, I now know where your love of wildlife comes from, and with a smile remembered the pet buzzard you had for a pet for a short time. Those were the days. Love, Kathy Davis Spann

“Fred, Cindy and Charlene, Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. I will always remember your dad as animal control officer when my dad was park superintendent. Those were some "good old days indeed." May God's peace be with you and yours. "I am the Resurrection and the Life," says the Lord. All our love, Jan and Roger

“Sonny, Our families grew up together and no family is perfect. I will never forget you and my Dad (Joe) always like brothers. The stories, the tears, the sorrow, the laughter and the joy! Sonny tell Jewell, Euel, Joe and the rest I miss them and look forward to that Big family reunion when we come to meet you all. "Hey Man do I have a story to tell you", The only truly dead are those who have been forgotten. I will Never forget you!

“ I have one thing to say about knowing Sonny. He was a man that if you ever met him you would remember it the rest of your life. Every time you saw him there would be that familiar trademark of his of "Hey man, do I have a story to tell you" and some of them were true! I am sure of that. Sonny was one of those people that always made life interesting. Sonny and I both shared the 24th of June for birthdays and he always would kid me and tell me he knew I did not forget his birthday, so he guessed I just forgot to get his present, this year.
