Charlotte was a dear sister in law that we never got to spend enough time with. I will always have memories of her when I was in middle school when she was married to my brother Mike then along with Michael and Todd. Even though in the past years we didn't get to spend time with her we still love her and carried Charlotte in our prayers.

“Charlotte is my beautiful niece whose big heart always embodied love and care for her family. It was my honor to have been her aunt, almost like sisters, we shared wonderful memories from childhood. We became wives, mothers, and grandmothers at almost the same times. No longer suffering, Charlotte is in heaven with Jesus, her mother, and Granny Wheatley.

“ My precious sister, my go to person, is with now Jesus and mother. I know the two of them are walking the streets of gold and laughing together. No more pain. She is smiling down at us all and she is finally at peace. No one could ever ask more than that. Thank you God for the privilege of having Charlotte as my sister. I Love You Sissy!
