“ My sincere condolences to Martin's sister, Anna, and her family... Martin used to post on our discussion board, <http://disc.yourwebapps.com/discussion.cgi?disc=206964;article=647139;title=Civilized%20General%20Discussion>, where we announced his passing to his many online friends... I'm so sorry it took so long to call the Henderson police when he first went missing on May 29th... We kept hoping against hope that he'd return again and that the problem was only that his power had gone out again like it had the week before... If you'd like to read some of the things that Martin posted there, his online name was OldCM... he also posted on another board, <http://disc.yourwebapps.com/discussion.cgi?disc=175790;article=1543940;title=Religion%20and%20Ethics%20BBS> where he was equally well liked... I go by Siagiah there, but will be glad to tell you more about his time on our discussion board privately, if you wish... You can contact me at cpd.monitors@gmail.com where I will give you real names and information about Martin as well as an easier way to find the things that he used to post on our boards... Again, sincere condolences... He was a wonderful man and very well liked...

I took part on the same religion and ethics board. I had also began e-mailing back and forth with him this year. When the tornado had gone near the town he temporarily lost his land line phone service and bought a cell phone to let us know that he was okay.

When I stopped hearing from him I had hoped it was just another temporary thing. But as time stretched on we all became worried. As we talked about it one of the people here suggested that perhaps we could have to police check on him. I called the Henderson police and that afternoon got the the call that he had passed. As asked by the police, I held back letting the people on the forum know until the police could get in touch with family.

May his family have the strength they need to get through this difficult time. He is missed by his online friends.

Thank you for posting your condolences. I read everything that was posted, to Anna, Chester's sister. I am a friend of Anna's and was able to drive her to his home from Ft. Worth. We stayed a couple of days and picked up his ashes. Kind hearted man and so sad they lived so far apart...she kept calling him but thought he may have gone out of town. It was way too sad!
