To Holly and all Ricky's children and family. I knew Ricky 35 years ago and I was saddened to find when doing a search for him that he had passed. I found the news in Chris "Homer's obit and I knew it was Ricky referred to as his Daddy when I saw Chris's picture, it was like seeing Ricky himself, I knew immediately he was Ricky's son. My heart and prayers go out to each and every one for your loss of Chris and His Daddy, Ricky. Much love and prayers for all thier family,

“ Our lil Homer....So very hard for me to say goodbye so I won't just that I will see you again someday so I will only say so long. You NEVER failed to light up a room and no matter how or where we were you was smiling .....I cherish the last time you and I sit down and talked, some things I will forever keep in my heart and some were ment to be shared Like your love and devotion to your Family .... not wanting to hurt them or in anyway disappoint them..Just so you know Homer they all knew...as we get ready for your last ride we can do so knowing you left SO many memories in our hearts and minds you won't be leaving us, you will forever be at the Lake on Family gatherings, only now you will be looking down on us..I LOVE YOU and will miss you BUT I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU...I will keep your memory alive...Love you Son.... Aunt Billie Sue and Uncle Don ....PS we told dad it wasn't you at the lake lol.....
