“ *I have many memories of Chris, I grew up with this family and have known her and Welton it seems as long as I can remember. I was also priviledged to be her pastor for a number of years before they moved back to Texas. As her pastor, it was then that I appreciated her most. I witnessed first hand her faithfulness and love to her family, her church and her Lord Jesus. You will be missed! I will see you in heaven some day.
My prayers to all of the family.*
