“ There are so many beautiful memories surrounding the times you spent with us. All the fishing trips with Dad and Josh. All the times everyone was out doing their own thing and we'd just sit and watch TV. Or you would and I'd look through countless baby names. I remember you always reminded me how it feels the day your child is born and how sometimes a name just comes to you. I remember you telling me that no matter how much Josh gets on my nerves that you could tell that he loves me more than anything so to try not to be too hard on him. You weren't just some guy my dad was friends with to me, Chris. You were family. And we miss you so very much. You'll always have a very special place in my heart. Thank you for being such a wonderful person and always being there for us. Can't wait to see you again. Rest Easy. We love you. Love, Cynthia and Josh.

“ Gerry and Family, This poem has comforted me. Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there; I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there; I did not die. Mary Elizabeth Frye - 1932

“ Chris, you were a very good friend and person to me. I cherish the times we had together. I never know what to say on these things but I hope your family knows how lucky they were to have you in their life and I understand the emptiness and sadness they must feel right now. You will be missed and I consider myself lucky having you in my life.

“ I had only met Chris a few times shooting pool. He was such a nice guy and an awesome pool player... My husband liked him a lot even though Chris put him out of the tournament every time they played each other. He'll be missed.

“ More than once you shared a meal with us. More than once you slept on the couch with the TV making funny noises and the Rock Band guitar in your hand, and I have the pictures to prove it ! More than once we all made the Casino trip. This special journey you make without us, but we will join you someday. God speed and peace to your family.

“ Daddy, I'm going to miss you so much. I know our relationship was a bit rocky, but I know we were trying to patch things up. My schedule was just busy when you were free, and yours was busy when I was free. I just wish we could have spent more time together. It was always good to see you at the football games and whatever else. I'm just glad the last time I saw you was a high point for us both. My high school graduation. I miss you and love you. Rest well.
