“ Hunter, I am so sorry for the loss of your Dad. I have been visiting my parents in Ohio last week, or I would have come to your Daddy's service. Please know that I will be praying for you and your family. Let your Mom know that if you need anything, or if I can help in any way, to please get in touch with me. You are a very special young man and I look forward to seeing you this fall. Be strong Hunter, Love, Mrs. Brown

“ My heart is broken. God has gained an amazing angel that I know will keep everyone laughing. I have so few memories of my high school days that does not include Chris in them. He always made me smile and cheered me up when no one else could. I love him so much! He loved Brenda and his kids so much!! God bless you all. He's smiling down on us now.

“ We are so sorry to hear about your loss. Our thoughts and prayers go out to everyone. Chris was my manager at Walmart and was the first person my husband met when he started there. They were pretty good friends back in the day. Chris was a great person and I'm glad we got a chance to know him. May God be with y'all at this difficult time and always.

“ My Dearest Chris, Oh how I remember the laughs and the many times you said, "Girl you can achieve anything you set your mind to." You always believed the greater good in people. It was an honor of knowing you not only as my Boss, but as a friend, brother and someone who just loved life...I pray that God would wrap His loving arms around your beautiful wife and children. May you know how much you will be missed....Gone but Never Forgotten....MY Beloved Brenda, sweetie just know that he is now your guardian angel and will watch over you and the kiids...know and see how many lives he touched and what a POSITIVE impact he had in the community and at every work place. He was a BLESSING....Sending you my LOVE

“ To Chris's family....I worked with Chris at Walmart a few years ago and he was a great man. He was always happy and smiling and was definitely my favorite supervisor there. He was always so helpful and caring and knew what it meant to be part of a team. I thank him and you for all the work that he put into Relay For Life. I pray that the Lord helps you all during this troubling time. God Bless

“ Words are at a loss. Chris, you have given many happy memories to everyone and our son Devin, and your's and Brenda's children, Hunter, Cherokee, and Netta, and your's and Emma's children, Miranda and Katlynn. You have always said in the 25yrs that I have known you, if you died and at your funeral if everyone had a chance to speak up about the Chris they knew, it would be different for everyone. Brenda and I just had a recent conversation about this, and your right.....Just know that your are greatly missed and loved! Many prayers and blessings for the whole family.
