Clara Lynn Schur died June 4th, 2017 at Clairmont Nursing Home in Longview, Texas. She was born November 16th, 1935 in Henderson, Texas to the late Chester and Clara Flanagan Johnson. She was a loving housewife and a wonderful mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was a fabulous cook and amazing baker. One thing that almost everyone remembers about Lynn is her infectious laugh and irreverent sense of humor. She was quick to smile and a great comfort to those she loved. She enjoyed traveling with her husband Fred before he passed away. They drove to many locations across the U.S. in their 1964 GMC pickup truck. They especially loved their many trips to Seattle, Washington; Mesa Verde, Colorado; and the Grand Canyon.

The family will receive friends from 1:00 p.m. until services at 2 p.m. on Wednesday at Bar None Cowboy Church.

“ I didn't have the pleasure of personally knowing this beautiful woman, but I feel like I knew her through the wonderful stories that her precious daughter, Suzan, shared with me over the years! What a blessing she was to all of those she leaves behind, and what a gift you all were to her! No mother or grandmother could ask for more than that! As you take her to her rest on Wednesday, please know that she had a life that was well lived, and a family that she loved with all her heart! God bless you all during the difficult days ahead.
