“ Patrick was the most loving, caring, hard working, toughest man I knew. He was the most stubborn, determined and sarcastic individual that walked this earth. If it had POTENTIAL, he was going to conquer it. His motto he lived by was from Zig Ziglar, "You will get all you want in life, if you help enough people get what they want in life." Patrick loved 4 things in life; fishing, drinking, his boys, but most importantly, me, his wife. He gave me his all. He stood by me through ups, downs, differences, and indifferences. And regardless, he knew.....MOMMA WAS ALWAYS RIGHT! This man gave me hell, but he gave me more happiness than one deserves in a lifetime. I will TRULEY deeply miss my best friend. May he walk through the gates of heaven a successful business man, an accomplished father, a devoted friend, an inspirational achiever, an influential uncle and a beloved husband. He was one of the strongest man I knew, and I'm very, very proud to had shared my life with him. Mr. Rogers, I love you.
