“ Julie, Rick, Ben, and all your family,We send our most sincere and heartfelt sympathy to each of you in the loss of your wonderful father and grandfather. Jay knew Dr. Hurt and had such admiration and respect for him, and until your loss I did not realize he was Julie's dad. We miss you all around the old stomping ground here, and regret that we were not able to come to visitation or the service.Our thoughts and prayers for comfort are with you at this time. We have both lost our dads, and it is one of life's greatest challenges. May God bless you and hold you in the palm of his hand,Ellen and Jay

“ It was probably 44 years ago when my Mother informed me I was going to see a dentist by the name of Dr. Hurt! Boy, did that instill confidence in a 10 yr old kid! But Dr. Hurt's winning smile and attitude quickly put still those fears once I was in his chair. Though I have been gone from Henderson all these many years, any time I ran into Dr. Hurt on a visit, he always remembered me and inquired of my family. Henderson and Rusk County have lost a giant among men, but God now holds Dr. Hurt in his loving arms. My condolences to the family and I pray that God lifts you up and gives you strength during your time of loss.

“ When my wife and I arrived in Overton on this date in 1970, we inquired about doctors and dentists, etc. From that time until now, Dr. Hurt has been my dentist, and I credit him with "saving my teeth" with fillings and crowns. One of the joys of going to Dr. Hurt's office, but I can't say that for all dentists, was our mutual interests in pastures, cattle, hunting deer, and our love for the Lord. I don't know who witnessed the most to whom. And, through my work at the Texas A&M Center in Overton, we also discussed the pros and cons of Baylor vs TAMU....and sometimes Arkansas' play. My family shares your loss of a husband, father, brother, grandfather, and a grand person with a big heart for the youth and his Church. You and East Texas have been blessed by Dr. Hurt's presence in our community and his service to people and the Lord.

“ Dr. Hurt was placed in an era of great change and tribulation. He became a strong anchor of stability for his family and his town. I met him only twice and shall never forget his friendly smile, his intense curiosity, his strong love of life. He knew he was blessed in this life and he was grateful. The lives God blessed through him will continue to be better for it through the ages. Now, he is gather to his people, before the Throne of Him who created Dr. Hurt in love. He is there waiting for us. I look forward to seeing that big smile once more.

“ I moved here 4 yrs. ago and got to know Cliff at H.S. football practices & basketball games. His love of family and kindness to all was obvious. When I told him how my father spent the last 5 yrs. of his life bed-ridden, diapered, and tube fed, he stated his hope that God would take him home quickly when He was ready. I believe the Lord heard him.
