“ I worked with Wayne for over 10 years in Burglary and Theft. We shared the Hold desk on evening shift at the old Reisner building for several of those years. Great guy, great sense of humor and always a pleasure to work with. We've lost a good one! My thoughts are with his family and the many, many friends he has.

“ As a member & classmate of HPD Class #29, I will always remember Clyde and his infectious laugh. He was an outstanding officer and it was my privilege to have been a part of his life at HPD. The family can take pride in his distinguished career as a Houston Police Officer.

My heartfelt sympathy is extended to his entire family. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God give you His comfort and peace that only He can give.
