“ I am sorry to hear about Corine's death. Mother and I became friends with her when the two of them were at Kingsley Place (Emeritus). I enjoyed knowing Corine. She was very friendly and loved to read and work jigsaw puzzles. My sympathy to her family.

“ Miss Corine was such a great example of what a dedicated Christian should be. I remember many times she would come to worship when she really didn't feel good and when most others would stay home. She was always there with that sweet smile. How wonderful the church would be if more Christians were as dedicated to worshipping the Lord as Corine. God rest her soul and bring comfort to her family during this time of loss.

“ Joyce, Billy, and Scotty, our deepest condolences in this time of loss for your family. I truly believe heaven is like a distant land, and the loss of a dear loved one is similar to them taking a journey by ship. As we wave goodbye to them here, on those distant shores, they are saying, "look who is coming!". This thought has always comforted me when I've lost a loved one. We love you all dearly, and let us know if there is anything you need.
