“ Ronnie Keeling was a man all of his own. He was soft spoken, cordial, a gentleman to a fault. He took care of his family and his job. My heart goes out to his precious, sweet wife, Kay. She and I worked as partners in the Northside Cafeteria for 10 years. I also am praying for these sweet 3 children, Rhonda (Keith), we seen these two married, Rhonda was so tiny, she used my wedding dress to get married in! What an honor for me to help her! Cheryl, we love you so. You are the joy to so many! Especially, our family! Then there is Kevin who has always been a good kid! Well rounded, all boy! Just so much like our own son, Travis Ray. The Chapman Family loves you all! Always have, always will! ❤️🙏
