“ Pepaw.... Today you have been heavy on my mind! I ran across a picture of you & Lexi when she came home from the hospital & it brought a big smile to my face! I might not have known you for a long span of time, but the time I had with you, I will never forget & cherish forever! You were such a loving, caring, thoughtful "OL' MAN"... Chris & I talk about you alot & share a couple of giggles here & there!!!! The girls talk to you in Heaven, they say you are the best Angel!!! We all love & miss you terribly! Enjoy it up there & save a spot for me!!!! :)

“ Dear Reed family, my condolences for the loss of your father. Danny and I grew up together in Santa Maria and were the best of friends. When he left SM about the 7th grade, we never spoke again until a few years ago when we made contact again after 55 plus years. We talked about going trigger-treating on the rich part of town, and about old classmates. Danny and I were on the first Little League All-Star team in SM and were roommates in this big hotel in San Bernadino, Ca. 2 ten year old boys, we lost in the finals for the right to move on to Texas great memories. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ My Darling Nephews, Danny and Bobby, Frankie and I are both saddened to learn of your father's passing. We have so many fun and happy memories going back to our high school days. And of course, so many wonderful memories when he was also my brother in-law. He was and will always remain young, with that big smile of his and warm and caring ways. Take good care and please know how very special you are to me. Auntie Jo

“ Uncle Danny's spirit will live forever within me and his smile and charm will never be forgotten. He was the most gentle man I have ever had the pleasure of knowing and I was so proud to be able to call him my uncle. At this moment my heart is broken but I find some solace in the fact that I know I will see him again someday. He meant so much to me and I will forever miss him. and cherish every moment I had with him. To Dan, Bob, Patricia, Gina, Stephen and families, my heartfelt sympathies go out to you all. May God bless you and comfort you in your time of grief. Traci
