James Daniel “Danny” Courcier, 73, of Selman City, TX, returned to his heavenly home on August 22, 2023, after a valiant battle with cancer. His love for his family and firm belief in God gave him strength and peace during his illness.

He was blessed with a large and loving family, and was married for 44 years to his best friend, Lynn Courcier. Together, they raised three daughters. Danny served his country in Vietnam as PFC and Crew Chief in the US Army, then graduated from Kilgore College. He was a Master Certified auto diesel mechanic and enjoyed his craft, working on anything he could get his hands on while excelling at his career and highly recognized. He also loved to fish and spend time at the lake. Danny was an active member, and former Lay Minister, of Selman City Christian Church, always beaming with adoration in knowing that his grandmother was a founding member.

“ Danny and I were friends for many years. It mattered not if at work or at the church itself, Danny always tried to help others and show them the love of Christ. For many years, he and Lynn were the backbone of the church. Underprivileged kids being their priority. Danny LOVED family. Danny loved his friends, and he never met a stranger. His personality was larger than life. What an honor it is to call him my friend. Speak well of me in Heaven my dear Brother. I look forward to seeing you again on that glorious day that Jesus calls us ALL home.

“ Danny was just a youngster when I came into the family, but I always thought a lot of him, his sense of humor & his visits while family in hospital. I know he was a (Bethune in many ways, sure that his wife could have told him so, but he was well loved by everyone. You girls will have those precious memories to hold in your hearts. Love all of you.
