“ Fun times with your dad and mom back in Jamesport MO. The hangout place was at Danny and Nita's house. We did some crazy stuff but most of all we had a blast. Human pyramids about 8 of us I think. Your dad was the biggest duck in the puddle too, so ornery and agging us on. We danced playing loud music, monopoly games, and a million games of Uno, we even played poker with monopoly money from several old games put together. We had a little rum and coke every once in a while shhhh. AND OH MY GOSH food and food and more food, BBQ to die for. Either Nita or Danny cooking up something that the smell would pull people in from all over town. Shawn was just a thought, you girls were in grade school, and chad was this super cute toddler. You and your family were and still are my best friends, I hate we don't get to see you. I am thankful to have the memories of all the good times, include a few disagreements, once Danny caught me cheating at a monopoly game, (I wasn't the only one either). He threaten to call the police he was so angry, a few days later he apologized and we had a good laugh at how we'd both over reacted. I'm sure the police would have thought us both nuts. Then all of you in our wedding... We moved to KS and a short while later you all followed and the good times began again, Shawn's birth, Danny stuck in the fields I drove to Plains to get your mom to the hospital, don't know how they did it but everyone of you kids are drop dead gorgeous. Dodge City Chinese restaurants, shopping having toilet paper smack me in the head, (Danny on the isle over of course) knew just when to toss it, someone ripping their pants followed by a strong brown odor to leave your mom and I standing there so people would look at us like one of us had done it...LOL. We did get to visit a little when you moved to Texas. We even totaled our car on a trip to Glen Rose with your mom, dad, and Shawn. Hit from the back when I come to my sense I accused your dad of pulling something stupid again...then he told me to look at the back, our trunk was buckled up to the rear window. Your dad's blizzard sat upright between my feet flying into the back from the front where he sat. I could go on for hours. What joy I felt when you shared that he smiled as he met Jesus. LOVE YOU ALL. RIP in peace my friend, you will be missed but NOT for long.

“ I will always remember Danny as the guy that could make anyone laugh at anytime with his infectious laugh, dancing around the house acting like a fool. No matter what kind of mood we were in, Danny would always have Shannon, Terisa, & I laughing in the end. He was an intimidating man to those that didn't know him, but those of us that were fortunate enough to know him, knew he was larger than life and just a big ol' teddy bear.

There is less light in the world knowing that Danny is no longer with us, but I know he is dancing around, acting the fool, and laughing it up in heaven, celebrating with his sweet mother that he loved so dearly. Rest in Peace Danny boy, you sweet, sweet man, I know you know how deeply you will be missed!

“ To the Yoder Family,

We are very saddened about Danny passing away Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. We hope it comforts you that your grief is shared by all of us who knew him. He was a wonderful man, very skillful of his trade, an all around man and a good mechanic of all kinds that we can always call and ask for his opinion or help. We first met Him when we moved to Henderson in 1990 and became close friends over the years. We enjoyed all the family parties and impromptu get together we had with the other filipinos all over Texas. We are blessed to know him and we will cherrish all the happy memories we had with him. Our love and deepest sympathy to the family especially to Nita, Shannon, Teresa, Chad ,Shawn and their families. May He rest in peace and may perpetual light shine upon him forever.
