“ So sorry to hear of her passing. While I did not know here in school, we had some great conversations via Facebook often comparing the brutal Texas summer to that of Alaska. My prayers to her family and friends.

“ Carl, I was so shocked and saddened to hear about Debbie's passing. I have so many memories of her growing up. In fact, I can't remember a time when I didn't know her ... we were best friends, even before elementary school. I have so many good memories and stories about Debbie and C.V. and Mavis ... I remember Debbie was the first person I ever knew who drank a Coke with breakfast and put ketchup on her scrambled eggs. She was also the first person I ever knew to get a driver's license at 14 ...it was a hardship license because Mavis couldn't drive any more because of her arthritis, but still. Debbie could drive and then C.V. got her a Corvette convertible! I always think of her as being adventurous and glamorous (her gorgeous blonde hair) even though in some ways, she was very shy. I'll miss her.
