“ Dear Sara and Carol,

I'm so very sorry for your loss. Dee was a very special friend to our family for so many years. Mom and dad thought so much of Dee and Herb, Britt and I too. We loved your visits to Washington when BRITT and I were little; our visits to Georgia and Plano and going to Myrtle Beach and the Current River. with you! I loved Dee's laugh and will miss her dearly.

Mom sends her her sympathy too, she was very close and lost very a dear friend, Dee too. It was fun meeting her sisters. Mom and dad always had good stories to tell after Dee, Clair and Lottie would come to visit them in Washington. You have very special families and Friends to help you through your loss. Think of the commotion in heaven now that dad, Herb and Dee are reuniting.

*Take Care,
Love, Sherry Miller, BRITT and Jo Hamlin.*

“Dee” stepped up, in my inability, to provide a stable family for my daughter.-Sara As a result, Sara did not have to live a "hand to mouth" existence and had privileges that would, otherwise, have been unavailable. For that, I am grateful and will be thankful for the remainder of my life. Dee was kind, thoughtful and considerate . There will be many sad moments of her passing but none of her being here. Respectfully, Rick Dickson
