

Dick Hamilton Umbel

May 5, 1922 - January 19, 2011

Memorial services for Dick Hamilton Umbel, 88, of Dallas, will be at 10:00 am, Saturday, January 22, 2011 at Grace Presbyterian Village in Dallas. Graveside services will follow at 3:00 pm, Saturday, January 22, 2011 at Maple Grove Cemetery under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home in Henderson. Dick Hamilton Umbel was born May 7 1922 to Roy and Gladys Umbel in Youngstown Ohio. He attended school in Struthers, Ohio, served in the US Army from 1941 to 1945 as an Airplane Maintenance Technician. Dick attended aircraft engineering schools and later obtained his Masters in Banking at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Dick married Norene Sparkman of Mount Enterprise Texas in 1951. They enjoyed a family and forty-five years of marriage until her death in 1996. Dick served in banking with First National Bank in Shreveport, Grayson County Bank in Sherman, residential builder with Zack Williams Real Estate in Longview, Central Bank and Trust in Farmers Branch and retiring as CEO and President of Lewisville National Bank later known as First City Bank in Lewisville. His love of Family, golf and woodworking kept him busy in his retirement years. Dick was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, Don, Clayton and his twin Jack Umbel. He is survived by his wife, Alice Thornton Umbel of Dallas, daughter Beverly Ham and husband Kelvin of Lubbock, son Richard R Umbel and wife Tina of Burlington Wisconsin and four grand-children. Stepsons Ralph and Judy Thornton, Dr Keith and Peggy Thornton, Peter Thornton, Susan Thornton, along with eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. In Lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Dick's memory are suggested to the Caring Fund, Grace Presbyterian Village